

Accessibility Statement for EduGlean LLC

Effective Date: March 1, 2026

At EduGlean LLC (“EduGlean,” “we,” “our,” or “us”), we are committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all users, including individuals with disabilities. We strive to improve the usability and accessibility of our platform and services in accordance with applicable accessibility laws and standards.

Our Commitment

EduGlean aims to provide an inclusive online learning environment that is accessible to all learners, tutors, parents, and visitors regardless of ability or technology.

We are actively working to improve accessibility and usability by following recognized standards, including:

- Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA
- Applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

Accessibility Features

Our platform may include:

- Keyboard navigation support
- Responsive design for mobile and desktop devices
- Readable text and contrast ratios
- Alternative text for important images
- Accessible forms and navigation structures
- Compatibility with modern screen readers and assistive technologies

Ongoing Improvements

Accessibility is an ongoing effort. We continuously review, test, and improve our platform to enhance accessibility and user experience.

Third-Party Content

Some third-party tools or integrations used on EduGlean may not be fully accessible. While we encourage accessibility compliance from our providers, we cannot guarantee accessibility of third-party services.

Need Assistance?

We welcome feedback regarding accessibility improvements and are committed to continually improving the accessibility of our platform.

If you experience accessibility barriers while using EduGlean or need assistance accessing any part of our platform, please contact us:

Email: support@eduglean.com

Please include:

- A description of the issue
- The webpage or feature involved
- Your device/browser information (if possible)

We will make reasonable efforts to respond promptly and provide accessible alternatives where possible.
